DETAILED ACTION

1. A response was received from the applicant on March 28, 2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claim 7 recites the limitation "the installation docking area" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
5. Claim 8 recites the limitation "the protected working area" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smedal (US 5,893,333).

Art Unit: 3617

Smedal discloses the same method for loading/unloading a vessel from an offshore installation, as shown in Figures 4-6, that is comprised of the steps of bringing a vessel, defined as Part #36, up to an offshore installation, defined as Part #1, placing a bow section of said vessel in a docking area of said installation, as shown in Figures 5 and 6, loading or unloading said vessel using equipment on said vessel and said installation, and backing said vessel away from said installation. Said vessel is provided with a protected working area in the bow, as shown in Figure 4.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed on March 28, 2007 regarding claims 7 and 8 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

10. The applicant argues that Smedal (US 5,893,333) discloses a tanker instead of a support vessel.

11. In response to the applicant's argument, Smedal discloses a method for loading and unloading a vessel from an offshore installation incorporating all of the steps as claimed by the applicant. Said vessel supports the transportation of petroleum products between terminals, and can thus be considered to be a "support vessel". Thus, Smedal discloses all of the features as claimed. Therefore, for the reasons given above, the rejection of claims 7 and 8 is deemed proper and is not withdrawn.

Art Unit: 3617

Conclusion

12. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
